CCWF NEWS

The Christian & Congregational Women's Fellowship (CCWF) met on Thursday, May 3, with eight members present. President Rosalie Brenton called the meeting to order. She gave everyone a sheet of colored paper & asked them to outline their hand on it. She then told us that was a reminder to us that when life gets hectic and we feel as though we need a 3rd hand to look at the outline and think of it as God's hand extended out to us at all times. She then followed with prayer.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Carolyn Harber, secretary, and stood approved as read. It was announced that CCWF received $25 from an individual in appreciation for the prayers which we have been lifting up on his behalf. Treasurer, Marilyn Seymour, gave the treasurer's report, which was also approved as presented. Label Chair, Charlene Town, reported we have collected 947 Best Choice bar codes and 118 Box Tops for Education. In addition, to the Box Tops for Education, G&W receipts have been turned in to Marshall Elementary School in order that they may receive $108.00 as a result of this program. Seymour, CCWF representative to the church board, gave a report on the previous night's church board meeting.

The ladies voted to give $250.00 to our Week of Compassion Mission Project. Harber, Chair of the CCWF Nominating Committee, presented the proposed slate of officers for the year 2018-2019 as follows: President-Brenton; Vice President/Study & Worship Director-Town; Secretary/Reporter-Harber; and Treasurer-Seymour. The proposed slate of officers was approved as presented. Other members of the Nominating Committee were Jean Booth and Evy Shoup.

It was announced all area ladies are invited to attend the Eureka United Methodist Church Women's Guest Day Luncheon and Program at noon on Thursday, June 7, at the Eureka United Methodist Church.

Town, Study & Worship Director, introduced Harber who presented the program on "Elizabeth, Mother of John the Baptist" based on the Book of Luke. Hostesses for the afternoon were Charlene Town and Julie Nordmeyer-Bilson.

Prayer concerns were reviewed. There were no book updates.

The next meeting will be a morning coffee meeting on Thursday, June 7, at 9:30 a.m. with the CCWF officers serving as hostesses. This will be our Installation of Officers with Charlene Town serving as Installing Officer.

The ladies joined in singing the senior version of "Jesus Loves Me" led by Evy Shoup and accompanied by Seymour at the piano. The meeting closed with the ladies joining hands while praying The Lord's Prayer.
